

Introduction

The School of Humanities currently offers doctoral programs of two second-tier disciplines: Comparative Literature and Culture, Theory and Chinese Marxism; master programs for three first-tier disciplines: Chinese Language and Literature, Chinese History, and Chinese Philosophy; one professional master program: International Chinese Language Education.

The School of Humanities is endeavoring to construct a number of high-level and specialized disciplines and several domestic-leading disciplines with international features.

School of Humanities

Subject Fields	Research Contents
Comparative Literature and Cultural Theory	The Comparison of China Foreign Literature and Culture, Cultural Theory and Literary Criticism, Literary Anthropology and Aesthetic Anthropology.
Marxism in Chinese Society	Marxist Philosophy, Contemporary Chinese History.
Chinese Language and Literature (English & Chinese Taught)	Theory of Literature and Art, Ancient Chinese Literature, Literary and Aesthetic Anthropology, Contemporary Chinese Literature, Comparative Literature, Chinese Classical Literature, Language Study, Language and Practical Language Study.
Chinese History	Ancient Chinese History, Contemporary Chinese History, Specialized History.
Philosophy	Marxist Philosophy, Foreign Philosophy, Chinese Philosophy.
Master of Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages (MTC SOL)	Teaching of Chinese as a Second Language, Second Language Acquisition, Introduction to Chinese Linguistics, Study of Classroom Teaching, Cross-cultural Studies, Educational Psychology, Language Testing and etc.

Achievements

In the last five years, the School of Humanities has successfully obtained 35 projects of National Social Sciences Fund (9 are major projects) and 50 provincial or ministerial level projects. Also, the School of Humanities has hosted Shanghai philosophy and social innovative platform base once; compiled the collection of three CSSCI journals and three foreign journals; published about 400 papers on SSCI, A&HCI, CSSCI, and over 350 books (edited authored and translated); obtained 12 provincial or ministerial levels academic honors. The research on Tokyo Trial and Anti-Fascist War aroused important influences on the world academic field, which has frequently obtained the instructions from the state leaders.

上海交通大学
SHANGHAI JIAO TONG UNIVERSITY

Renowned Professors

Name	Research Fields
LV Tonglin	Comparative literature, Chinese Cultural Study, Contemporary Chinese History Study
GAO Xuanyang	Western Philosophy
CHEN Jianhua	Study on Literature and Culture
YE Shuxian	Literary Anthropology, Literature and Art, Study on Chinese Culture
YANG Qingcun	Ancient Chinese Culture, Chinese Literature
CAO Shuji	Chinese Economic History, the History of Chinese Population
ZHANG Zhongliang	Contemporary Chinese Literature
YU Wanli	Classics and Literature, Traditional Language
CHEN Yexin	Ancient Chinese History, Disaster History
LI Yushang	Historical Geography, Disease History, Marine Environmental History

Platforms for Scientific Innovation

Research Centers

- > The Anti-Fascist War Research Center
- > The Tokyo Trial Research Center
- > China's Local Literature Research Center
- > European Culture and Marxism Research Center
- > Institute of Aesthetics and Cultural Theory
- > Research Center for Local Literature
- > Research Center for Left-wing Culture
- > Center for Research on Ancient Classics and Chinese Culture
- > Leuven Sino-Euro Culture Research Center
- > SJTU Research Center for Contemporary Chinese Literature and Culture
- > Research Center for Literary Theory and Criticism
- > Institute on the History and Society of Northeast China

Practice Base

Oversea Internship Center for MTCOSOL Masters at University of Auckland (New Zealand)

Contact

LIU Jingjing
International Affairs Coordinator
School of Humanities

Phone: +86-21-34206521
E-mail: liujingjing@sjtu.edu.cn
Address: Room 215, Humanities Building
800 Dongchuan Rd., 200240, Shanghai, China
Website: www.shss.sjtu.edu