GUIDE FOR INTERNATIONAL NEW STUDENTS

2021

Preface

Dear International Students:

Welcome to Shanghai Jiao Tong University (SJTU) and the beginning of your new journey in your study life.

Shanghai Jiao Tong University has always adhered to the spirit of being inclusive and welcomes students from all over the world to join the SJTU family.

SJTU plans to start the 2021-2022 academic year from September 13th. The university has been working hard on the prevention and control of the COVID-19 pandemic, strictly adhering to the guidelines issued by the Chinese government at different levels and Chinese health authorities. SJTU is also committed to reducing any health risks as the safety and well-being of the campus community is its top priority. If any changes occur, please pay close attention to our latest arrangement as we will notify you via our website or email as soon as possible.

For students who cannot register on-site due to the pandemic situation, we are preparing online courses. No matter online or offline, SJTU will, as always, be student-centered, organize sufficient teaching resources, provide high-quality teaching courses, and do our best to create the best study environment.

We have specially prepared this guidebook for studying at SJTU, and hope that through this guidebook, students will be informed about the latest notification arrangements of our university, the relevant regulations for university life and related Chinese laws and regulations, so as to make full preparations for studying at SJTU.

We hope that all students could carefully read the instructions and take every necessary measure, so as to secure their safety and health, adapting to new developments positively. Wish you a fruitful, happy, progressive and memorable stay at Shanghai Jiao Tong University.

See you at SJTU soon!

5 Visa and Residence Permit

5.1 Visa Application

All international students studying at Shanghai Jiao Tong University are required to have a valid student visa and must comply with Chinese laws and related visa policies during their period of study.

5.1.1 Visa Application for International Students

(1) International students outside China

1. Please comply with all relevant immigration laws and abide by the Chinese Embassy's policies to apply for an X1 or X2 visa at the local Chinese Embassy or Consulate. Please remember to bring the following documents: Valid, regular passport; Admission Notice; Visa Application Form (JW201\202 Form); Physical Examination Report (if needed);
2. When you receive your passport and the Chinese visa, please make sure that the embassy or consulate returns the Admission Notice and JW201\202 Form to you. These are important documents that you will need to submit at the Shanghai Exit-Entry Administration Bureau when you deal with your visa conversion (to residence permit) inside China;
3. University only provides visa services for students who have already undergone registration. You must hold an X1 or X2 visa to enter China, within 1 week before the registration date. As a student, you cannot enter China without first having a valid visa;
4. The school can only apply for Residence Permit for international students who have completed the enrollment procedures.

(2) International students in China must register with a study visa (including X visa and the student's Residence Permit), otherwise, they will not be able to go through the enrollment procedures.

International students who are in China shall go to Shanghai International Travel Healthcare Center for health examinations before registration. (more details in 5.1.3).

5.1.2 Application for Student's Residence Permit

- (1) The school can only apply for Residence Permit for international students who have completed the enrollment procedures. Students entering the country with the X1 visa must apply for the Residence Permit within 30 days. Students who illegally reside due to the expiration of visas shall be liable for the consequences and pay the fine themselves. If you stay in China for more than six months, however, you will have to apply for a residence permit.

(2) International Student Visa Application Online Guide

International students who have finished the registration process can apply for “Visa Application Letter” online through “my.sjtu.edu.cn” or “Task center” APP. (scan the QR code below)

To make your visa application, you are required to prepare the following documents:

5.2 Miscellaneous

1. According to Measures for the Enrollment and Cultivation of International Students by Schools in Order No. 42 of the Ministry of Education Administrative, all international students studying in our school must hold a study visa;

2. SJTU will only issue the Application Letter for student's Residence Permit for international students who have completed the enrollment procedure;

3. International students holding visas or Residence Permit issued by other universities or colleges in China need to provide the Certificate of Study Completion or Transfer Certificate issued by the former universities or colleges;

4. International students are requested to pay close attention to the validity of entry visas to avoid early entry. Those who need to apply for Residence Permit after entering China with remarks on their study visa shall apply for the Residence Permit in the Exit-Entry Administration Bureau of Shanghai within 30 days from the date of entry. Otherwise, the risk of failure to apply for the Residence Permit due to early entry will be borne by the students themselves;

5. When international students register, they shall ensure that their visa is a study visa and has a sufficient time limit. If the time limit of their visa or Residence Permit is insufficient to apply for a new study visa or Residence Permit extension, the school shall have the right to refuse students to register. If a student's visa or Residence Permit is expired, (s) he must go to the Exit-Entry Administration Bureau of Shanghai Public Security Bureau to accept the punishment before registration;

6. Loss of Passport

- 1) The loss of a foreign passport must first be reported to the Police Station closest to where the loss occurred with valid identification by oneself. A "Receipt of Report" will be issued by the Police Station;
- 2) Obtain a Confirmation of Reporting the Loss of Passport from Exit-Entry Administration Bureau of Shanghai Public Security Bureau with the Receipt of Report issued by the police station;

- 3) Apply for a new passport at your embassy or consulate in China with the Confirmation of Reporting the Loss of Passport;
- 4) Register at the SJTU Service Center for Exit-Entry Administration within ten days after obtaining the new passport, and then apply for a new visa or Residence Permit at the Exit-Entry Administration Bureau of Shanghai Public Security Bureau. Please note that you must go back to the police station to renew your Registration Form of Temporary Residence.

7. Passport Renewal upon expiration

If an international student plans to renew or replace the passport in the Embassy of his/her home country in China, he/she shall apply to the Embassy 2 months before the expiration of the validity period of the Residence Permit. When the new passport is issued, the student shall apply for the alteration of the Residence Permit within 10 days after the issuance of the new passport.

International students who renew their passports in their home countries due to reasons such as the expiration of their passports shall enter the country with a valid study visa, and shall apply for the alteration of Residence Permit within 10 days after entering the country. Those who do not have a valid study visa shall contact the SJTU International Student Development Center to confirm the reapplication for a study visa.

Note

SJTU's implementation of visa policy is subject to the official notice of the Exit-Entry Administration Bureau of Shanghai Public Security Bureau. If you have any questions about your passport and visa, do not hesitate to consult the SJTU Service Center for Exit-Entry Administration.

7 Laws, decrees and regulations

International students in China shall be restrained by laws and regulations concerning foreigners, local laws, and university rules and regulations. The local Exit-Entry Administration Bureau, police stations, and universities shall jointly assume responsibility for the management of students. Please clearly understand Chinese law during your studies in China and avoid incidents in which Chinese law is violated because of being unfamiliar with the law.

1) The related laws and regulations to prevent the risks caused by the epidemic

According to the Constitution of the People's Republic of China and Exit and Entry Administration Law of the People's Republic of China, the legitimate rights and interests of foreigners in China shall be protected by laws. Foreigners in China shall abide by the Chinese laws, and shall not endanger China's national security, harm public interests and disrupt social and public order.

According to the Exit & Entry Administration Law of the People's Republic of China, foreigners in China shall register their accommodation on time and comply with the identification inspection of public security organs. Besides, according to Law of the People's Republic of China on the Prevention and Treatment of Infectious Diseases, Frontier Health and Quarantine Law of the People's Republic of China, and Regulations on Preparedness for and Response to Emergent Public Health Hazards, foreigners in China shall cooperate with the People's governments at all levels and relevant departments in China when they take monitoring, isolation as well as other measures for effective prevention and control of the spread of infectious diseases and protection of public safety and health.

According to Law of the People's Republic of China on Penalties for Administration of Public Security and Criminal Law of the People's Republic of China, whoever refuses health quarantine measures such as health declaration, temperature check, epidemiological investigation and collection of samples, or refuses health treatment measures such as isolation, inspection, local treatment and transfer to other hospitals for treatment shall be held accountable by the law and penalized with a warning, a fine or detention. Wherever a crime is constituted, criminal liabilities shall be investigated following the law.

2) Provisions on the Administration of Religious Activities of Foreigners within the Territory of the People's Republic of China

The People's Republic of China respects the freedom of religious belief of foreigners within the Chinese territory and protects and administrates the religious activities of foreigners within Chinese territory by the law. Foreigners may participate in religious activities at lawfully registered Buddhist monasteries, Taoist temples, mosques, churches within the Chinese territory according to their own religious beliefs. However, international students are prohibited from conducting any missionary work, religious ceremonies, or similar activities on campus.

3) Law of the People's Republic of China on Penalties for Administration of Public Security

This law stipulates that no one is to commit acts such as the disruption of the social order, fights, drug abuse and trafficking, licentious activities and prostitution, infringement of interests of others, destruction of public property and so on. Such acts will be punished strictly in accordance with the law if discovered.

4) Fire Protection Law of the People's Republic of China

According to this law, no entity or individual shall damage, misappropriate or illegally dismantle or stop the use of a fire protection facility or apparatus, bury, occupy or cover a fire hydrant, occupy any fire separation distance, or occupy, block or close an evacuation passage, safety exit or fire truck passage. It is also prohibited to use unauthorized electrical appliances and set up electrical wires in the dormitory.

5) Road Traffic Safety Law of the People's Republic of China

Within the territory of the People's Republic of China all vehicle drivers, pedestrians, passengers, road traffic activity-related entities and individuals must obey this law. Therefore, international students' motor vehicles and non-motor vehicles should be officially registered and driven lawfully.

6) Narcotics Control Law of the People's Republic of China

Narcotics Control Law of the People's Republic of China is formulated to prevent and punish drug-related illegal and criminal behaviors, protecting the physical and mental health of citizens and maintaining social order. The term "narcotics" as mentioned in this Law refers to opium, heroin, methamphetamine (ice), morphine, cannabis, cocaine, and other narcotics and psychotropic drugs which are under state control and addictive.

Article 59 Where anyone commits any of the following behaviors, if a crime is constituted, he shall be subject to corresponding criminal responsibility; if not, he shall be subject to punishment for public security:

1. smuggling, vending, transporting or manufacturing drugs;

2. illegally possessing drugs;
3. illegally planting original plants of drugs;
4. illegally trading, transporting, carrying or possessing seeds or seedlings of original plants of drugs that have not been inactivated;
5. illegally teaching manufacturing methods of narcotics, psychotropic drugs or precursor chemicals;
6. forcing, inducing, abetting or deceiving others to take in or inject drugs; or
7. providing drugs to others.

7) Provisions of Shanghai Jiao Tong University on the Administration of International Students

1. International students must fulfill their obligations as follows: to comply with Chinese laws and regulations; to respect social order and good customs; to abide by the university management system and norms for student behavior; to maintain the reputation of the university; to fulfill other obligations under the laws and regulations in China.
2. For students who violate laws or university regulations, the relevant function department of Jiao Tong University will subject them to corresponding criticism and disciplinary sanction in accordance with Provisions of Shanghai Jiao Tong University for Penalties on Violation of Regulation, and such conduct will affect their scholarships application and student status assessment.
3. International students should handle procedures concerning visa or residence permit registration in accordance with the laws and regulations. If students still need to study or remain in China after expiration, such students should conduct the formalities for the extension before the expiry of their visa or residence permits.
4. The university respects the national customs and religious beliefs of international students, following the principle of separation of education and religion. However, activities such as preaching and religious gatherings are strictly forbidden on campus. The students with religious beliefs should participate in religious activities in lawful religious sites outside the campus.
5. All International students should comply with the International Student Accommodation Regulatory Rules of Shanghai Jiao Tong University. The following acts are forbidden in the dormitory: usage of unpermitted electrical appliances, over-drinking of alcohol, fights, drug abuse, and religious rituals. The penalties for the violation of the Rules consist of three levels corresponding with the seriousness of the committed acts, i.e. written warnings, circulating a notice of criticism and cancellation of accommodation qualification. According to Provisions of Shanghai Jiao Tong University for Penalties on Violation of Regulation, the violator of the university regulations will be reported and transferred to the relevant function department for further penalties. All students residing in the dormitory are required to provide adequate compensation for any loss or damage of lawful rights and interests of others or public property caused by the violation of the university regulations.
